Morgan, Mrs. Will Eastman, Mrs. Charles Sessions, Mrs. Merrill Mills, Mrs. Eugene Salice, Miss Metta Robinson and Miss Bess Campbell.

The new blouses are simply charming, especially those in the new putty or sand color. One of these has been sketched here. It is of sand-colored charmeuse with sleeves of self-tone chiffon. The blouse is made in vest effect with plain back and half belt of material reaching to the sides. The front is laid in pleats at the waist and held in place by narrow buckled straps of white suede. A high collar of black velvet is also striped with girlish. This individual coat is of a new English cloth, soft and fleecy and coral-colored with trimming of other shades. The coat is made of a material of shirred velvet is trimmed with the fur ornaments that are called Scotch hoods. A big muff made of the coat material is trimmed with otter.

The February meeting of the Topeka Federation of Women was held Thursday, and consisted of four morning meetings, and a matinee musicale. The board of management held a meeting at ten o'clock in the morning. Twenty new members have been added to the federation roll, and there is still a waiting list. Those on the waiting list will be voted in as there are vacancies in the membership list. The limit of 250 members has been reached.

A meeting of the art department was held in the morning in the reading room of the city library. An address was made by Mr. George Stone, who spoke about the pictures that are hung on the walls of the reading room. He called special attention to the picture by Charles Gruppe, a Holland boat scene, called "On the Beach." Another picture he mentioned was one by Steele, and also a picture by Albright, "The Evening Call." Mr. Albright is an artist who has won world-wide fame. He at one time made his home in Kansas, and now maintains a residence near Chicago. Mr. Stone told of the painting of a picture of a corn field, a canvas which he has in the library. He agreed to paint the most difficult Kansas scene he could find. He worked for a long time to obtain the reflection of the tints in the sky on the field that he particularly desired. He said that he was traveling through Kansas after he began work on the painting, and looking from the car window he saw on a field just the light he wanted to reproduce. When he went home he painted it into the picture.

the white suede and has a turn-over of white organdy. The blouse is closed with red buttons.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Quinton will give a dinner party tonight at their home in Topeka avenue. Covers will be laid for Governor and Mrs. Arthur Capper, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Price Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett R. Wheeler, Mr. and

Mr. Stone was one of the committee that was chosen to buy the paintings that adorn the walls of the hall. At that time some members of the committee objected at the high coloring in some of the landscapes. That was a good many years ago, and the later artists are now making the coloring so much more vivid that those canvases seem almost tame compared to later works.

At the meeting of the department of civics and justice Mr. W. P. MacLean, supervisor of physical training in the public schools of Topeka, gave an address. He told of the need of the city for more playgrounds. He said that Topeka ought to have at least five such grounds. "It is not so essential that a playground be expensively equipped," he said, "as that it be conducted by a capable person. A good playground manager is worth more in accomplishing the purpose of the playground than all the equipment that can be put into it."

The household economics department held a meeting in the morning, at about two dozen women read recipes that might be used in making up a suitable menu for breakfast, dinner, supper or tea. It is the plan of the department later to collect recipes and make a cookbook from them.

The cafeteria luncheon was served at one o'clock, and about two hundred women were there for the luncheon.

An afternoon meeting and musicale was held at the First Presbyterian church. The audience room was comfortably well filled, and the program for the afternoon was: Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. E. G. Foster, Mrs. B. H. Pugh, Mrs. Frank Whitmore and Mrs. H. W. Putnam. Mrs. George Parkhurst, who is chairman of the music committee of the federation, gave half of the program herself, and collaborating with her in the afternoon were: Mrs. Margaret Fowler Forbes, violinist, of Kansas City. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. Robert Garver. The program was begun with two short songs, and the Vision Song from Madame Butterfly. That group was followed by a Lalo concerto for piano and violin by Mrs. Forbes and Mrs. Garver. A second group of songs by Mrs. Parkhurst closed with Rogers' "Captain," which appeared to please the audience particularly well. Mrs. Forbes' assistance received the heartiest applause was "A Child's Dream" by Ysaye. Ysaye's music is much in favor locally, and Mrs. Forbes has special ability in interpretation. She has, we understand, been a pupil of that master. The program closed with a group of songs by Mrs. Parkhurst, closing with "Protestations," a composition by Norris. Mrs. Forbes played the violin obligato for that selection.

Two evening concerts will be given in February under the auspices of the music department of the federation. The evening of February 10, Miss Helen Hogeboom will give the program with the assistance of the Washburn string quartet, and the second concert in the month will be given

Mrs. David W. Mulvane, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Quinton.

The modern coat and fur-trimmed cap make women look very young and on February 23 by the Washburn orchestra, under the leadership of Dean Horace Whitehouse, with Professor W. Hogeboom as piano soloist.

The forestry department of the federation will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the chairman, Mrs. A. A. Robinson.

Mrs. H. B. Hogeboom and Mrs. G. D. Crawlwell will give a bridge party Thursday afternoon of next week at Mrs. Hogeboom's home, 801 West Sixth avenue. Guests will be invited for nine tables.

The Travelers club will meet Saturday afternoon with Miss Maud Bishop, 1600 College avenue.

Topeka people who are interested in art will be glad to learn that an art exhibit will be given in this city during the coming spring, probably in April. The exhibit will be held in the Manual Training building of the Topeka high school, and the pictures to be shown are those of Gruppe, an artist of a good deal of renown. He has a canvas in the city library that is regarded as one of the best originals in the collection there.

Gruppe is a landscape painter, who has lived a good many years in Holland and has done many Holland scenes. The collection which will be brought to Topeka, under the auspices of the Topeka Federation of Women, through the art department, will contain about thirty of Gruppe's pictures, and a few other paintings. The collection is to be sent to Kansas City, and will be brought to Topeka from there.

Gruppe is represented in the library in Rouen, France, in the collection of the queen of Holland. Some of his pictures are in the National gallery of Ottawa, Canada, and in the National museum in Washington, D. C., and in many important galleries in America and Europe.

Mrs. Robert Coppedge of Topeka is personally acquainted with the artist, having met him in the east where she studied landscape painting a number of seasons.

Former Washburn college people who are in New York city this winter, celebrated Washburn Day at the home of Dr. Frank Knight Sanders, formerly president of Washburn. In view of the fact that today is the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the college, the program for the meeting in New York included an address on "Washburn Fifty Years Ago," and a prophecy on "Washburn Fifty Years to Come." Students from Philadelphia and Boston went to New York for the party, and Miss Ruth Bauer, who is studying at Bryn Mawr this winter, took part in the program.

The P. E. O. society had a meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Hugh Fisher. The musical program, entitled "Life's Story in Music," which was in charge of Mrs. Frank Whitmore, was as follows:

Songs of Infancy—
Where Did You Come From, Baby Dear?

My Lullaby.

Songs of Childhood—
I Once Had a Sweet Little Doll, Dear.

When I Do Wrong.

Songs of Youth—
Invitation to the Dance.

I Love Thee.

The Birthday.

Norwegian Bridal Procession.

Wedding March from Lohengrin.

Songs of Old Age—
Silver Threads Among the Gold.

Old Folks at Home.

Those who assisted in giving the program were: Miss Lois Strickler, Miss Enid Strickler, Miss Josephine McKee, Miss Gladys Dougherty, Miss Laura Startzman, Mrs. H. W. Hinman, Mrs. I. F. Richards and Mrs. Fisher. Mrs. E. L. Copeland assisted Miss Fisher as hostess.

The officers and members of Beulah Chapter No. 34, O. E. S., will hold a reception Saturday evening, February 6, in the chapter rooms at the Masonic Temple, for the members of the legislature and their families who are members of the order.

A short business session will be held beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Reception at 8 o'clock with the grand and past officers, and the present officers of the chapter in the receiving line.

The past matrons and past patrons will act on a reception committee throughout the rooms. The Eastern Star orchestra, under the direction of Lillian O. Anderson, grand organist, will furnish music during the reception, which will be followed by an entertainment under the management of Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Morrison.

Light refreshments will be served in the dining room by the young women of the chapter.

An earnest effort has been made to make this an evening of pleasure to all, and the worthy matron, Mrs. Bell Clevenger, and her associate officers extend a cordial invitation to all visiting members to attend.

Mrs. Ilef Felix was hostess at a meeting of her bridge club this afternoon at her home in Fillmore street.

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it a night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By using, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.

You will have every opportunity to wear the furs you buy now; the cold weather is not over yet, by any means, and not only will furs be needed while it lasts, but they are now worn late in the spring and early in the fall, both as a matter of fashion, and for comfort. They are, in fact, a necessity to the woman who would be among the first to wear a spring suit—and we are selling spring suits right along, now.

You will find such price contrasts as these: A $100 mink set for $50.00; an $85.00 Hudson seal set for $42.50; a $35.00 wolf set for $17.50; a $25.00 white fox set for $12.50, etc. Many separate pieces and coats also included.

Women's New Suits herald the fast-coming Spring

What we are to wear and whether we will like what Fashion dictates or not gives a feeling of unrest until the matter is definitely settled by the actual appearance of the ready-to-wear garments in their many seasonable models.

Conservative tastes have their innings this spring in the trim smart suits and the comfortable width of the skirts. Suits tend toward jaunty pockets, close-fitting belts, button trimming and fine tailoring.

Skirts show yokes of different widths, pockets, buttons, or if you prefer plain and flared at the bottom.

Light-weight gabardine, men's wear serge, poplin and serviceable homespun are popular.

The Prices Please All—for they begin low as $10.00, and range upward by easy stages to $47.50, with some representations at such popular prices as $25.00 and $35.00.
